

MORE TEUTONS ARE CAPTURED

British Take German Redoubt
to the North of Thiepval on Somme.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Except for a fresh British attack, which gave them the greater part of a German redoubt north of Thiepval and 600 prisoners, the troops of the entente in the region between the Somme and Ancre rivers in France apparently are taking a breathing spell and consolidating positions captured in the great offensive which began last Monday and has already netted them Comblies, Thiepval and other strong German positions at various points along the 20-mile front.

During the work of consolidation, however, the big guns of the British and French are hurling tons of steel against the new German positions. Another attack with Bapaume and Peronne the objectives, is forecast.

Meanwhile a big battle is in progress on the eastern front in the region between Lutsk and Vladimir Volynski, around Svinulsky and Koryniz, where Russians are attempting to advance, but the Teutons are impeding them by heavy counterattacks. The German war office says these counterattacks in the region of Koryniz have resulted in the recapture of positions lost recently by the Teutons. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Russians, says Berlin, and in addition 41 officers and 2,500 men were taken prisoner.

In Galicia the Germans west of Krasnoselie also pushed forward their lines, while in the Carpathians attacks by Russians were repulsed in hand-to-hand fighting.

The Russian general staff announces that since General Brusiloff began his offensive 420,000 officers and men of the Teutonic allies have been made prisoner and 600 cannon and 2,500 machine guns and mine-throwers have been captured.

Around Petrosinoy and Harnstadt in Transylvania, Teutonic allies and Rumanians are engaged in bitter fighting, but with no important result.

Paris reports repulse of Bulgarian attacks on both sides of Florina. There have been bombardments by British of positions of the central powers by land batteries near Doiran and by warships in the Aegean sea. An infantry attack by the Austrians in the upper Cordevole valley, Rome says, was repulsed.

Dated this 21st day of September, 1916.

J. H. KNAUSS, Secretary.

MANGLED BODY IS FOUND ON TRACKS

Salt Lake, Sept. 28.—The body of a young man believed to be that of Charles McDevitt of 612 West Sixth Street, was found badly mangled on the Salt Lake Route railroad tracks at Third North and Fourth West streets shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. The body was lying on the west track as an extra freight train, in charge of Conductor Adam C. Brown and driven by Engineer Harry Jackson, was proceeding south over the crossing.

Engineer Jackson saw the mangled body lying on the track, but before the extra came along, it is believed by the train crew that this must have been the train that killed the man. In the man's pockets were found cards bearing the name of Charles McDevitt, also a card from the Moose lodge of this city bearing this name. It was learned by the police that Charles McDevitt, residing at 612 West Sixth Street, left his home last night and expected to catch a train to Idaho. He had a wife and one child.

Although it is not positively known how the man was killed, the freight train crew and yard men, after tracing the marks, are of the opinion that he either tried to cross between the cars or was riding between them. The man's body was removed to the Eber W. Hall undertaking parlors.

OGDEN MAN LOST IN MATCHING GAME

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Mathias Tanner, traveling salesman of Ogden, Utah, but well known in Salt Lake, was in Albany this afternoon for two hours he was fleeced out of $75 by two strangers in a game of matching coins. While walking about town, Tanner told the police, he met a stranger in front of the postoffice. They visited the capitol, education building and other places of interest and finally strolled to Washington park, where, after sitting on a bench for a few minutes, they were joined by a third man, who suggested the game, which resulted in Tanner's loss.

Missouri State Federation of Labor officials are asking affiliated unions to contribute to a fund that will permit the employment of competent lawyers to draft a workmen's compensation act.

POLICY OF PEACE MAY BE CHANGED

President Writes Letter to Oregon Woman Pointing Out Great Crisis at Hand.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 28.—In a message opening his campaign of letter writing, President Wilson declared tonight that "the question is about to be determined whether we shall keep the nation upon its present terms of peace and good will with the world or turn to radical changes of policy which may alter the whole aspect of the nation's life."

The president wrote the letter to Miss Leona L. Larrabee, president of the Women's Democratic club of Portland, Ore., thanking her for work being done in his behalf by the organization.

"I cannot help having the feeling," said the president's letter, "that intelligent women of Oregon need no suggestion or intimation from me as to what are the real issues of the present campaign or the real concern that women must have with those issues. As a very sincere advocate of the extension of the suffrage to women, it seems to me a very great disservice to the cause that partisan use should be made of it, particularly at a time so critical as this, when the question is about to be determined whether we shall keep the nation upon its present terms of peace and good will with the world or turn to radical changes of policy which may alter the whole aspect of the nation's life."

Opportunity for Young Men.

In another letter, sent to Howard S. Williams of Jackson, Miss., expressing regret that he cannot attend the annual convention of the Young Men's Business Club of America at Jackson, on October 10, the president declared that the future business development of the country rests in an unusual and peculiar degree at present in the hands of young business men.

"The problems of the future in the field of business are going to be new problems very largely," he wrote, "for else old problems in a new form. It will need imagination, vigor and enterprise to deal with them as they should be dealt with, and the young men of this generation should be preparing themselves in mind and purpose for a new era. It would be a great privilege if I could come to bear such a message in person. Since I cannot, I can only ask you to enter for me and to assure the gentlemen assembled of my profound interest in the part they are to play in the future development of the great nation we love."

Campaign Plans.

The president made it clear again tonight that he has no intention of making a campaign tour. It was reiterated that all speeches made by him away from Shadow Lawn will be before nonpartisan organizations, and generally speaking, will be non-political in form.

In replying to an invitation to make an extra speech on one of his middle western trips, Secretary Tumulty wrote tonight that no plans are being made for any near platform speeches by the president. On these trips the president's private car will be attached to regular trains, and only the regular brief stops will be made.

A suggestion has been made here that a Wilson day be celebrated before election in all parts of the country, the president to write a message for the occasion. The plans are only in tentative shape, however.

The president accepted an invitation today to review the Fourth New Jersey regiment at Seagirt Saturday.

Today the president discussed political questions with Miss Ida Tarbell, a magazine writer, and late this afternoon received a group of moving picture operators, who took him in various poses.
